

Fern Hill Farm, Continued

The old home of this branch of the Greve family has entirely disappeared, the present cottages and farm house being built in the 17th and 18th centuries by the Crossley family. The property later passed to a branch of the Chadwicks and thence to the Lord of the Manor. The land is not being farmed at the present time and the property is now owned by Mr. Frank Brierley.