

ROCHDALE.

REARING OF A NEW MILL.—Messrs. John Leach and Sons, flannel manufacturers, Rochdale, celebrated the rearing of a new mill on Tuesday evening, built upon their own estate in Healey Hall, Bottoms, by giving a substantial repast of roast beef and plum-pudding, in one of the large rooms, to which upwards of one hundred sat down. The cooking was superintended at Harrage House by Mrs. Leach, the widow of the head of the firm, Mr. John Leach. The room was beautifully decorated with evergreens. The band from the neighbouring village, Lowerfold, was in attendance. After ample duty had been done to the repast, Stephen Leach, Esq. was called to the chair. Amongst the gentlemen present were Mr. Robert Leach, Calliards; Mr. Edmund Leach, Harrage House; Mr. Samuel Tweedale, Mr. Edward Tweedale, Mount Cottage; Mr. Jno. Tweedale, Healey Hall; Mr. Robt. Tweedale, Broadley Mill, &c.; Mr. Chadwick, Mr. Samuel Taylor, and other gentlemen from Rochdale. Among the toasts of the evening were "The queen, and God bless her," given with three-times-three, the band playing "God save the queen;" "The firm of John Leach and Sons," by Samuel Tweedale, to which the chairman very eloquently responded. The company enjoyed themselves by singing and dancing until a very late hour.

MST 4-1185

Torchstones Local Studies
Rochdale Link4Life